

Name: _____

Date: _____

Where are the world's rivers?

1: What is the source of a river?

- Where the river starts its journey, usually in high places such as hills and mountains
- Where the river ends its journey by joining an ocean, sea or large lake

3: Why are rivers important? Tick two.

- They are important in the Water Cycle where water is recycled.
- They make a place look nicer.
- They shape the landscape through erosion, transportation of sediment, and deposition.

5: In which continent is the River Nile?

- Europe
- Africa
- South America
- North America

7: In which continent is the Volga River?

- Europe
- Africa
- South America
- North America

9: Where is the mouth of the River Nile?

- Mediterranean Sea
- Caspian Sea
- Atlantic Ocean
- Andes Mountains

2: What is the mouth of a river?

- Where the river ends its journey by joining an ocean, sea or large lake
- Where the river starts its journey, usually in high places such as hills and mountains

4: In which continent is the Colorado River?

- Europe
- Africa
- South America
- North America

6: In which continent is the Amazon River?

- Europe
- Africa
- South America
- North America

8: Where is the mouth of the Volga River?

- Mediterranean Sea
- Caspian Sea
- Atlantic Ocean
- Andes Mountains

10: Where is the source of the Amazon River (beginning)?

- Mediterranean Sea
- Andes Mountains
- Caspian Sea
- Atlantic Ocean
- Valdai Hills

11: Where is the source of the Volga River (beginning)?

- Mediterranean Sea
- Andes Mountains
- Caspian Sea
- Atlantic Ocean
- Valdai Hills

12: Which country in Africa does not have a river flowing through it?

- Egypt
 - Ethiopia
 - Rwanda
 - Libya
 - Uganda
-

Last updated: Thursday, June 24, 2021 1:16 PM

